TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR SALES

Important Notes

In addition to any other contractual terms which may apply to any of your sales, we should draw attention to the following terms which affect your dealings with us to your specific attention: -

1. No opinion expressed by or on behalf of the society or its employees should be relied upon. It is for you as the vendor to ensure that all stock supplied complies in all respects with the description given to you by us.
2. In selling your stock you warrant that such stock: -
 - 2.1 Is of the correct age and fully fit in all other respects for the human food chain.
 - 2.2 Is of the correct ages to comply with any description given by you.
 - 2.3 Complies with the details in the relevant documentation provided by you which is accurate in all respects.
 - 2.4 Is or will be supplied on delivery with all documentation required by the relevant legislation.
3. Where payment for stock is to be made by reference to a Meat and Livestock commission or internal company grading system, you accept that all stock will be graded by the abattoir upon delivery there and you will accept payment on the basis of such grading. Neither the Society nor its employees are responsible to you for any opinion which may have been given to you as to the grade of such stock. You must not rely on such opinion. You do have the right to question the abattoirs grading personnel.
4. The Society acts as your agent.
 - 4.1 In the case of farm to abattoir sales, although the Society may be paid a procurement fee by the purchaser in some cases and receive payment for your stock on your behalf, it is not responsible for and does not guarantee payment by the purchaser.
 - 4.2 In the case of store stock sales the Society or agent is not responsible for any description of stock passed between buyer and seller. It is the buyer's responsibility to confirm if in doubt that descriptions are correct usually by means of visual inspection.
